

Solicitations

University buildings or campus spaces may not be used to raise money for any individual or organization other than an officially recognized campus organization. Organizations intending to use the University's spaces to benefit an off-campus effort must be prepared to prove the tax-exempt status of the benefiting cause. The Student Affairs Office will establish uniform procedures relating to the location, duration and setup arrangements for such solicitation activities.*